Dear Parents and Carers,

Croeso nôl!

I am delighted to be able to write my first letter as the Headteacher of Ysgol Y Bryn. I feel extremely honoured and privileged to have been chosen to build upon the success the school has already achieved under the strong leadership of Mrs. Dawson.

I have been a teacher and a senior leader across four schools, and two local authorities, most recently as Deputy Headteacher at Llandough Primary School.

Being a father to a daughter (and another child on the way), I am aware of the responsibility that the staff and I have in ensuring that the highest standard of care, and teaching and learning continues to be achieved. We have a hugely committed team of staff at Ysgol Y Bryn and wonderful children, which is a great place for any new Headteacher to start!

As the leader of the school, my main priority is to ensure that your child is happy and safe. The well-being of the children and staff is already at the heart of the school, and this is something I will continue to invest in.

I strongly believe in providing the children with an innovative and authentic learning curriculum and providing the best of everything, from experiences, visits, standards and resources, which build their enthusiasm for learning and help them to grow in a variety of ways. Ensuring that your children can share their ideas and listen to each other, as well as being able to think critically and creatively is key. When your children leave Ysgol Y Bryn, they will be ready for the next stage of their journey in education and beyond.

I know how vital working in partnership with parents and our community is for our children in creating a positive and rewarding experience and this is something you can expect to see more of in the future. As key educators in your children's lives, we are incredibly fortunate to work in what is the most rewarding career you can choose, with your support every step of the way. As Headteacher, I am approachable and available and look forward to meeting you all soon.

Cofion cynnes,

Mr. J-L. Williams

Headteacher
